From the
Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend is an important time in our parish, in that forty seven students will receive the sacrament of Confirmation; some on Saturday April 25 and others on Monday April 27. Our neighbor, Bishop Dominick was the celebrant, and as usual when he visits us here at MPB, it is always a prayerful and happy event.

Next Saturday we begin our First Holy Communion Masses – also a joyful time for the parish. Both Confirmation and First Holy Communion are events to celebrate and also a reminder that the parish and the Church in the Archdiocese of New York, continues to grow. It is beautiful to see generations of families who received their sacraments at MPB.

Turning from the Sacraments of Initiation, to the Cardinal's Appeal, it is fantastic that we have exceeded our goal! The parish goal is $33,500, and thus far we have $37,340 pledged or paid, by a total of 148 participants. Well done!

Yours in the Risen Christ,
Fr. Fallon
