From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Well last Saturday I returned from vacation, which I certainly enjoyed. In turn, Fr. Tom Roslak left for his vacation; he will be back towards the end of August. In my absence, the Rosary Altar Society sponsored their Penny Social at the school, and from what I gather – it was a great time. The women of the Altar Rosary Society quietly do a lot of work in the parish to help ensure our Church is beautiful and also well supplied for the celebration of the Mass. New members are certainly welcome for this essential parish volunteer organization.

In a similar vein, the Knights of Columbus also help the parish to be a vibrant Christian community. The events they sponsor help to bring people in the parish together in service and celebration. This is an excellent organization for men of the parish to join, in fact, the Council at MPB will now be sponsoring a “First Degree” for new members in the Hudson Valley. This is a large undertaking, but again is a sign of the vibrance of this council.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Fallon
