Parish Mission Of Merciful Love

Come join us for our Parish Mission Oct. 19, 20, & 21, Monday, Tuesday & Wednesday, 7:00 to 8:00 pm. Fr. Justin Cinnante will begin with Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and lead us in a reflection about Christ's Mercy proclaimed by Pope Francis. Please join us and bring a friend and watch miracles happen for your life and others!

From the
Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

I am happy to say the repaired windows in the front doors of the Church look pretty good. Most Precious Blood is a beautiful church – although like any building it takes maintenance and capital improvements.

In addition to improving our church, coming this October, we have an opportunity to improve our spiritual life. Something new here at MPB – On October 19, 20 and 21, in the evening, we will have a parish Mission! Fr. Justin Cinnante, of the Carmelites, will be with us first on Sunday Oct. 18, and then with us the following three evenings. This will be a great opportunity to experience Christ in our lives.

The visit of Pope Francis had a great impact. An aspect of his message is to bring Christ beyond the parish. Today offers a great opportunity. From 2:00 to 3:30 along Rt. 211 in Middletown, a number of parishioners will be participating in the Life Chain, quietly witnessing to the sacredness of all human life. Why not come and join us? When you get off Rte. 17, turn right in the direction of Crystal Run Mall. Go to the first traffic light and make a U turn onto 211 going toward Middletown. MPB participants will be on the right, just in front of the car wash on Rte. 211.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Fallon
