Veteran's Day
November 11th

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Yesterday was First Penance for our boys and girls who are preparing to receive First Holy Communion. Seven years old is considered when the age of reason begins, which is the basic ability to distinguish between right and wrong. That is why these two sacraments are conferred at that age. Confession and the Eucharist are both essential aspects of the spiritual life. Regular confession prepares our soul to receive the grace we receive from the Eucharist. Consistently receiving Communion fortifies us in avoiding those sins that bring us back to confession. Furthermore, confession is an expression of the love of God. Without the sacrament of confession, sins would accumulate on a soul year in and year out; but thankfully we do have that means of mercy in the sacrament.

The St. Benedict's 100th Anniversary Committee continues to meet and plan the celebration which will begin July 2016 and continue until September 2017. We are presently looking for photos of the chapel, especially historic photos to help put together a historical journal. If you have some photos that you think might be helpful – please call the rectory. Of course all photos will be returned after they are scanned.

Finally, Most Precious Blood will be hosting the Walden Inter-Faith Thanksgiving service on Tuesday November 24 at 7:00 p.m. Cookies and cake to follow in Fr. Sullivan Hall.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Fallon
