Knights of Columbus St. Patrick's Day Dinner Saturday, March 12, 2016

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

With the meeting of Pope Francis with the Patriarch of Russia, there have arisen some questions about the difference and similarities between we who are Catholics, and those who are Orthodox. With this in mind, next Sunday, Feb. 28, there will be a Lenten Presentation and discussion in Fr. Sullivan Hall from 3:00 to 4:15: Catholic, Orthodox, Protestant: History and Hope. Please come, maybe learn a bit and add to the discussion.

Well with the coming of Lent, we are again in the midst of the annual Cardinal's Appeal. Last year our goal was $33,500 and $40,655 was actually contributed by 172 different gifts – which is fantastic! In fact over the last eight years we have always met our goal. This year our goal has been increased by $6,000.00 which is about a 15% increase – that's a lot. Previously, increases were usually about $1,000 to $1,500. However, since $40,255 was contributed last year – the diocese anticipates that we will be able to make our new goal. Now many parishioners will have received an appeal in the mail, if this is the case, please respond soon. For those who have not received anything in the mail – next weekend there will be an opportunity to contribute because it will be the in-pew appeal, which we do each year. Please consider supporting the Cardinal's Appeal – which means we can make a difference in many people's lives when we work together.

Yours In Christ,
Fr. Fallon
