Dear Parishioners,

Well after almost two years here at MPB, Fr. Tom Roslak is being transferred to St. Joseph's Parish in Middletown where he will be the hospital chaplain for Orange Regional Medical Center. We will miss Fr. Tom and his presence at Religious Ed and the School. Becoming a hospital chaplain is an important service, especially in a hospital as large as Orange Regional. It is good to know that if we have family or friends who have to spend time at Orange Regional Hospital, their spiritual needs will be well cared for. We wish Fr. Tom all the best and hopefully we will see him now and then here in Orange County.

With the departure of Fr. Tom we have some changes here in the Parish. A new priest is not coming, at least for the time being. I am working on getting a "summer priest" which is arranged by the Archdiocese. Summer priests are typically men from overseas who are studying in Rome or elsewhere and come to New York to help cover vacations. In September they return to their full time assignment. I am working on a year round replacement or a weekend associate, but it is not a certainty that a new priest will be assigned here.

Fr. Tom's last Mass is Sunday April 17, in turn we will change from two Masses a day to one Mass per day. The 12:10 Mass will discontinue starting this Monday April 18; the 9:00 Mass will continue. Regarding the Saturday/Sunday schedule, that is something which will also need adjusting, in fact this has already been discussed with Parish Council. Of course we will continue to have Sunday Mass, but with only one priest we do need to make adjustments.

This is a reminder that we need young men from our parish to answer the call to the Priesthood and serve Christ in our parishes.

Yours in the Risen Christ,
Fr. Fallon
