From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Friday was the Pro-Life March in Washington and it had a huge turn out. Also important – are the changes happening in the White House and the Congress re-affirming the Sacredness of Human Life.

Locally, the Holy Hour on Friday also went well – God hears our quiet and persistent prayer. As a reminder – this Friday, adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will be moved from Friday morning to Friday evening, from 7:00 pm to 8:00 pm. As a parish, it is important that we express our love and faith in the reality of Christ in the Eucharist – so if you are able, please come spend some quiet time in prayer and reflection.

Finally – this week MPB School is celebrating Catholic Schools Week. There is a lot of fun activities on the calendar including: Dress up as a literary character, spelling bee, and career day. MPB School provides a fantastic education anchored in a Catholic Community. At the same time, the school utilizes current learning technology – including smart boards in all grades one to eight as well as wireless access. Well done Mr. Hallaway and MPB School!

Yours In Christ,
Fr. Fallon
